

Nature's Libraries Rock! 2018 Wild Wednesday Topics

Just as libraries contain collections of many books that open us up to new worlds, nature is a collection of many plants, animals and landscapes that do the same. What new worlds can nature open us up to?

Come find out at Wild Wednesday! Free, fun, family programs, Wednesdays at 7pm in Waitt Lab.

Tentative Dates

June 13: Chapters in the Book of Life: Animal Lifecycles

June 20: Into the Water: Frog Camp Scientists

June 27: Taking it to the Nest Level: All About Birds

July 4: No WW- Holiday

July 11: Truth Bee Told: The Importance of Pollination

July 18: Where the Wild Things Are: What is Found in Iowa Ecosystems?

July 25: Step Up to the (Tectonic) Plate: Earth's Geology

August 1: Thunder Thunder Boom Boom: The Science of Extreme Weather